Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of October 29th, for which I thank you very much.

It appears there are certain questions you wish me to answer regarding my late husband, but beyond the fact that he was born in Ontario I do not know anything further about him or his family.

We were married in Victoria about a year ago when John was stationed at Esquimalt. I knew very little of him or his family.

In order that you may receive the necessary information you require may I respectfully request that you contact his father at the following adress:

Mr.J.V.Muchmore.

R.R.#3. Elgin. Ont.

Thanking you for your interest in my case.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours very gratefully,

17th December, 1942.

Dear Sir:

I wish to thank you for your letter of the 7th of December, in reply to my enquiry of the 2nd of December.

According to regulations a Memorial Cross will be issued to the widow or the mother in respect of every sailor who laid down his life for his country during the present war and is survived by either. If both survive him, two Crosses will be issued, one to each.

In this respect the word "Mother" means the woman who gave birth to the sailor.

I regret therefore that your present wife or other members of your family would not be eligible to receive this Cross.

Yours very truly,

for

SECRETARY, NAVAL BOARD.

DJM/IM NS. 62-M-677 AIR MAIL 19th September, 1942. Dear Madam: It is with deep regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 18th September from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services informing you that your husband, John Vincent Muchmore, Stoker 1st Class, R.C.N., O.N. 21884, is missing believed killed in action. It is in the public interest that the name of his ship and the fact that she has been in action should not find its way to the enemy until such time as it is decided to publish the fact in a Naval Casualty List. It is therefore requested that this news, other than the fact that your husband is missing, may be treated as confidential. Please allow me to express sincere sympathy with you in your bereavement on behalf of the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, Chief of the Naval Staff, and the Officers and men of the Royal Canadian

Navy, the high traditions of which your husband has

Yours sincerely,

De Dissecretary, Naval Board.
