

HMCS SACKVILLE
COMMITTAL OF ASHES
22 September 2022

Words of Scripture

“I am the Resurrection and I am the life, says the Lord. Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he dies. And everyone who has life, and is committed to me in faith, shall not die for ever.
(John 11: 25-26)

Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go and prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. (John 14: 1-3)

I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38-39)

Prayer of Thanksgiving for Lives Past

God of grace and glory, we thank you for the lives of those we commit to the sea today, who were so near and dear to those who loved them, and who have now been taken to eternal rest. We thank you for the friendship they gave and for the strength and peace they brought.

We thank you for the love they offered and received while they were with us on earth.

We give thanks for the service they gave in times of war and peace to their country.

We pray that nothing good in these people's lives will be lost, but will be of benefit to the world; that all that was important to them will be respected by those who follow; and that everything in which they were great will continue to mean much to those who follow them. We ask you that their memory may go on living in their children, their families and their friends; in their hearts and minds, in their courage and their consciences.

We pray for those, who remain in grief over death, and pray that the Lord will help them in their time of grief, giving them the hope and assurance of everlasting life promised through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

May God grant us courage and confidence in the new life of Christ. We ask this in the name of the risen Lord. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;

Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory." Amen.
