The Chief of The Naval Staff,
Royal Canadian Navy,
OTTAWA, Ont.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you regarding my son
Howard John Cornish who is a stoker on the Destroyer St. Croix.
I am at present in very poor state of health and unable to carry on my business without my son's help. Through an accident a few years ago I lost my left forearm and have always been able to carry on , but I am now unable to do the work I have been accustomed to on account of my age. I have a small store here in Britt from which I earn my livelihood and will be compelled to close same as it is practically impossible to obtain any manual help as all local men are employed in munition work.

I consented to my son Howard joining the Navy with the understanding that I would try to carry on alone, and if I found
I could not, I would endeavour to have him released from service.
Howard is the only son and his help is needed urgently. I would be glad to have you take this matter up and advise me what procedure to take to have him return home to help me.

Yours truly, J. H. Cornish.

- NAVAL SERVICE -

27 September, 1943.

Dear Mrs. Cornish:

I deeply regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 27th of September, 1943, from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, informing you that your son, Howard John Cornish, Stoker First Class, Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, Official Number V.22939, is missing on war service.

According to the report received, your son is listed as missing, due to enemy action, while serving on Convoy duty in the Atlantic. For reasons of security further details of this incident of war cannot be released at this time.

It is requested that you will regard as confidential anything beyond the fact of your son's loss on war service until such time as an official announcement is made, as this information might prove useful to the enemy.

While your son is listed as missing and virtually no hope can be held out for his having survived, Canadian Naval Authorities are unable to make an official presumption of death until a period of not less than three months has elapsed. If further information has not been received at that time, it is probable that official certification of death will then be made and you will be informed accordingly.

Please allow me to express sincere sympathy with you on behalf of the Minister of National Defence of Naval Services, the Chief of the Naval Staff, and the Officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy, the high traditions of which your son has helped to maintain.

Yours sincerely,

For the purpose of record and in the event of there being any Service estate available for distribution (according to law) on account of the late

CORNISH, Howard John, Ldg. Sto.

No. V. 22939, R.C.N.V.R.

it is necessary that the requisite information regarding the deceased and his relatives should be furnished on the inside of this form in strict accordance with the printed instructions. The particulars required are to be carefully filled in and the Declaration on the back should then be signed in the presence of a Clergyman, Priest, Local Magistrate, Commissioner for Oaths or Notary Public, who should be asked to complete and sign the Certificate. This form should then be returned to the above address.

A deceased's Service estate, the administration of which is the responsibility of the Estates Branch, consists of any balance of pay and allowances at credit, cash on hand and the personal effects which are under the control of the Service authorities. To obtain such assets, it is not necessary for the person(s) legally entitled thereto to obtain through the Courts Probate of the Will, or if none, Letters of Administration of his estate.

In addition to the administration of those Service assets, the Administrator of Estates is authorized to withdraw into Government account any funds (within a defined amount) on deposit to the deceased's credit in Banks, Post Offices or other financial institutions in Canada and Overseas, without expense or trouble to the person(s) legally entitled to the estate, and to distribute such funds at the same time as any balance of pay is distributed. Also, War Savings Certificates and Victory Loan Bonds owned by the deceased may be redeemed and similarly distributed, or transmitted into the name(s) of the person(s) legally entitled. Such Certificates and Bonds should not be forwarded to the Administrator of Estates until they are requested.

If there are other assets which necessitate an application for Probate or Letters of Administration, the Administrator of Estates may transfer and hand over the Service assets to the executor or administrator appointed by the Court so that all the estate, Service and otherwise, may be dealt with as a whole.

The information given by you on Pages 2 and 3 of this form is therefore of importance in determining whether or not the deceased's assets are such that they may all be administered by the Administrator of Estates to the person(s) legally entitled, that is, without the need for Probate or Administration.

If there is insufficient space for complete particulars to be given opposite any question on Pages 2 and 3 of this form, the space under "additional remarks" on page 4 should be used.
