Commander, Naval Reserve
Canadian Forces Headquarters
Ottawa 4, Ontario

JAN 22 1968

LT J.H. Shand, Ret'd,
1087 Jane Street
NORTH BAY, Ontario

Dear

With the proclamation of the Canadian Forces Reorganization Act 1 February 1968, the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve Active and Inactive Lists ceased to exist.

Officers formerly on the RCNR Active List are now in the Primary Reserve and officers on the Inactive List are on the Supplementary List.

As you are no doubt aware every attempt is being made to maintain a Reserve Force capable in all respects of meeting an emergency. In order to achieve this aim, and to keep the strength of the Supplementary List within practical limits, it has become necessary to limit the numbers in the Reserve Force to personnel who have not reached compulsory release age for their rank.

Regulations have now been promulgated which establish the compulsory release age for Supplementary List personnel as five years above the appropriate Regular Force release age, or the age at which ten years of unpaid service in the Reserve Force is completed.

In view of this regulation, it is with regret that you must now be informed that it is necessary to effect your release from the Reserve Force and that you will be "Honourably Released" in accordance with the Queen's Regulations and Orders, Article 15.01 Item 5(a) (Compulsory Release Age) effective 1 April, 1968.

As your service is in excess of ten years you are entitled to have your name entered on the Retired List and the privilege of using the title of your rank with the word (Retired) or the appropriate abbreviation immediately following your name. Unless you advise Canadian Forces Headquarters to the contrary, it will be assumed that this is your wish and your name will be placed on the Retired List.

On a more personal note, it is necessary, because of the several thousand officers affected, to resort to this type of form letter. Individual letters would have been prepared but the numbers involved were too great to make this possible.

This occasion provides an appropriate opportunity to thank you most sincerely for your contribution as a member of the Naval Reserve over the past years. You may be justifiably proud of your service in the interest of your country.

In closing it is hoped that not only have you found your service in the Reserve Force rewarding but also that it has provided you with many pleasant memories. May you enjoy the best of health and good fortune in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Sir:

Naval Headquarters, through the Officer Qualifications Questionnaire, Form CNS 2434, has established a current and complete record of the naval and civilian skills of all Reserve officers. Qualifications are coded in such a manner that officers with desired skills can be located quickly and effectively. This information is in constant use for both planning and distribution purposes. Plans for any possible mobilization of Reserve officers are based upon maximum utilization of manpower skills. The records of each Reserve officer are reviewed and a re-evaluation of his best potential type of assignment is made annually. It is essential therefore, that the qualification records of each officer be maintained continuously. The enclosed questionnaire is the means by which required information is obtained. Your prompt co-operation in providing complete information will be of great assistance.

If, since completion of your Officer Qualifications Questionnaire, there has been no change in your status no action is required other than signature and return to the Naval Secretary in the enclosed self addressed envelope on which no postage is required.
